The following are terms and conditions that layout the SLBA's main priorities. As a coach you are expected to uphold those priorities and promote them to our members. Your initials and signature indicate you understand and agree to the terms and conditions as laid out below.

1) All of SLBA's programs are designed to promote the values and principles of the True Sport Movement which are supporting the positive development of youth in the following areas: playing fair, respecting others, keeping the game fun at ALL times, staying healthy, discovering your potential, and giving back to the community. As a coach you agree to support youth by promoting these values and upholding our leagues commitment to the True Sport Movement. Initial: _____

2) The SLBA has partnered with the local In-Motion initiative. As part of this initiative our association has agreed to promote healthy living and healthy physical activity to all members of our community. As a coach you are expected to promote these values by: providing smoke-free environments, educating about the need for healthy snacks and drinks during games, and encouraging family involvement in baseball during practice and at home. Initial: _____

3) As a coach with the SLBA you are entrusted with sensitive, personal, information. As a result you agree to keep that information confidential and protect the privacy of others by not using that information for activities other than those associated with coaching for the SLBA. Soliciting information unrelated to the positive development of the SLBA is considered a contravention of this agreement. Initial: _____

4) You agree to abide by all rules and regulations set out by the SLBA and our affiliates and governing bodies.
